Connect the parts of your system

The work collected under “Project Management” shows one part of a working system. We can help connect that part to the rest of your operation. Hiring, onboarding and coaching, so the knowledge settles with your own people rather than leaving with a consultant.

Put the documentation under its own linter

Put the documentation under its own linter — a per-file line budget that only ratchets down, an index requirement and a real-path check — which found six of nine plans marked done while carrying unchecked boxes, and fourteen commit-gating tasks named in no document.

Held 4 repositories to one history standard

Held four repositories to one history standard — conventional, emoji-free, no attribution trailers, enforced by a commit-message hook — alongside 48 instruction documents that govern how the work is done.

Focus the engineering effort

Bring the decision, the people affected and the options already considered. We can make the tradeoffs explicit and leave a documented recommendation.
